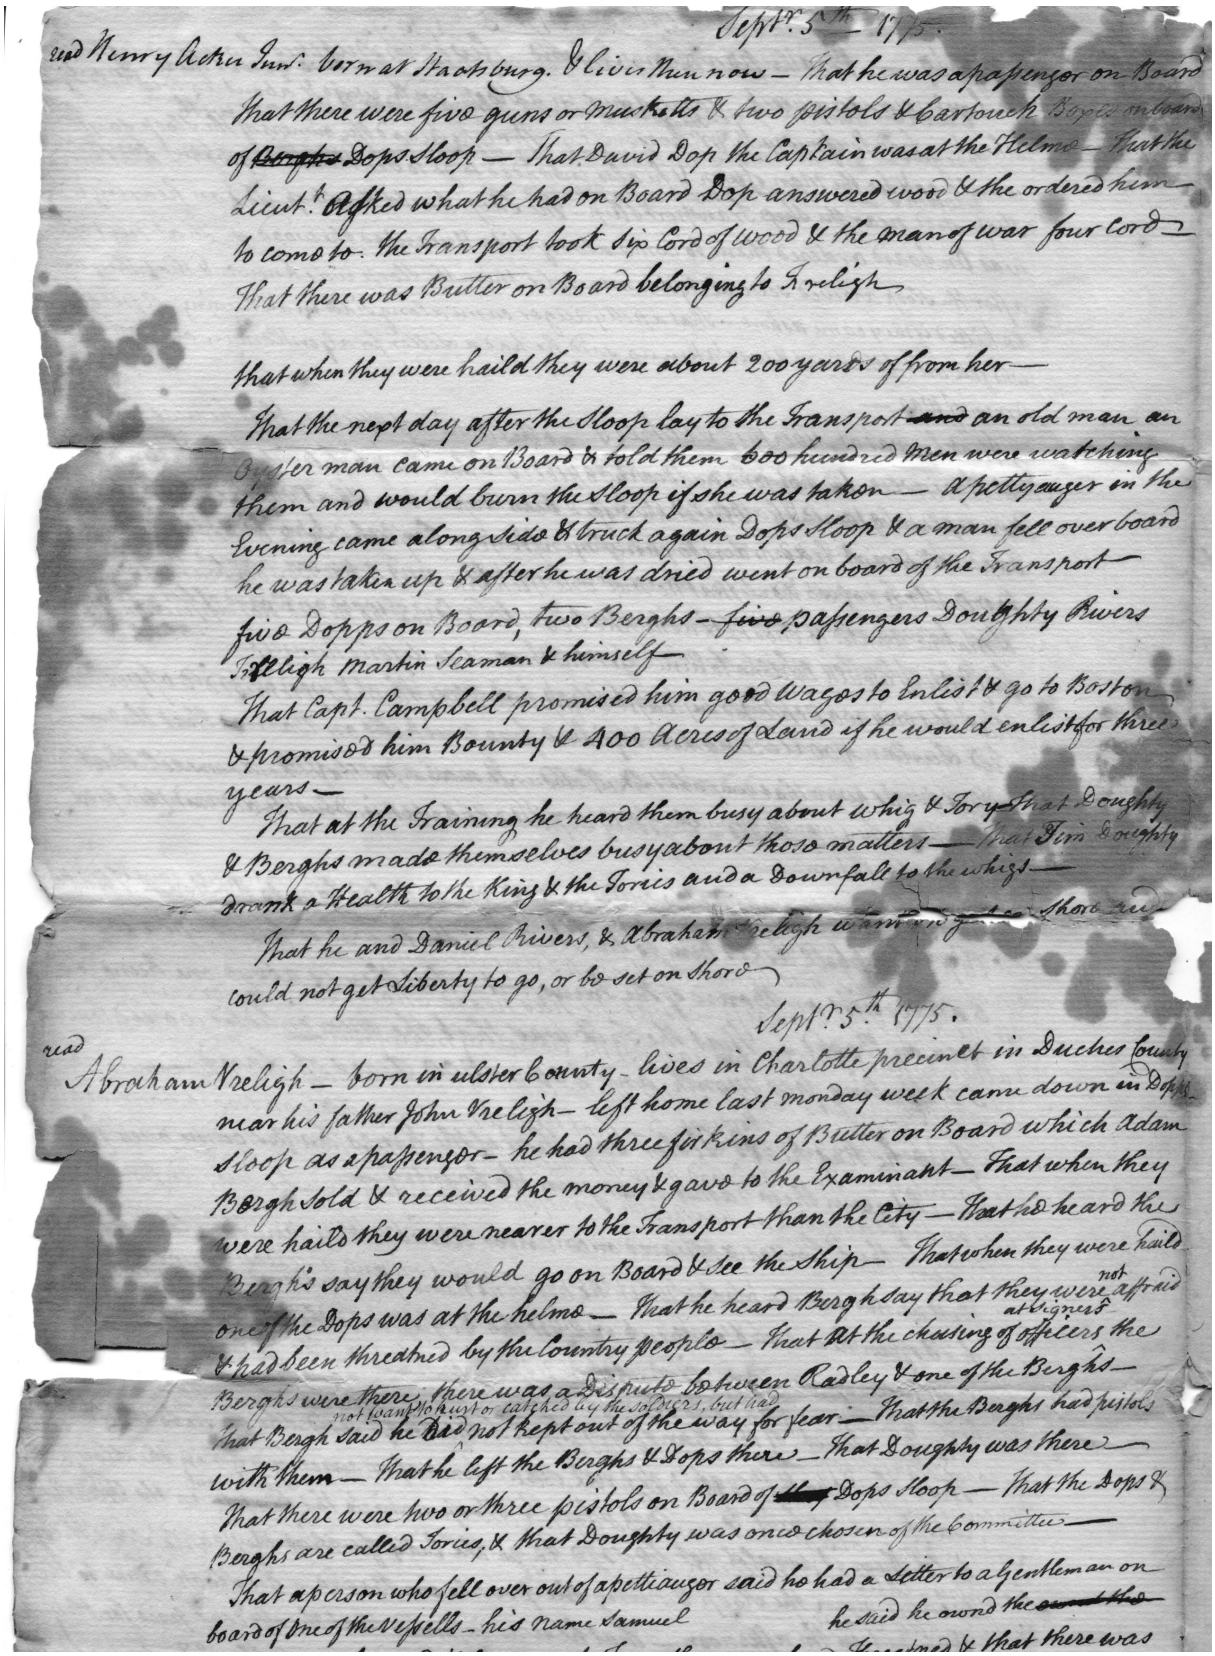
Dop, Bergh Deposition Document September 5, 1775



Sept.r 5th 1775.

read Henry Acker Junr. born at Hasbrug. & lives there now — That he was a papengor on Board That there were five guns or Muskets & two pistols & Cartouch Boxes on board of ~~Bergh's~~ Dops Sloop — That David Dop the Captain was at the Helme — That the Lieut.t asked what he had on Board Dop answered wood & the ordered him to come to. the Transport took six Cord of wood & the man of war four Cord — That there was Butter on Board belonging to Vreligh

That when they were haild they were about 200 yards off from her —

That the nept day after the Sloop lay to the Transport ~~and~~ an old man an Oyster man came on Board & told them 600 hundred Men were watching them and would burn the Sloop if she was taken — a pettyaugor in the Evening came along side & struck again Dops Sloop & a man fell over board he was taken up & after he was dried went on board of the Transport — five Dopps on Board, two Berghs — ~~five~~ passengers Doughty Rivers Vreligh Martin Seaman & himself —

That Capt. Campbell promised him good Wages to Enlist & go to Boston & promised him Bounty & 400 Acres of Land if he would enlist for three years —

That at the Training he heard them busy about Whig & Tory — That Doughty & Berghs made themselves busy about those matters — That Tim Doughty drank a Health to the King & the Tories and a Downfall to the Whigs —

That he and Daniel Rivers, & Abraham Vreligh ~~were~~ ~~on~~ Shore &c could not get Liberty to go, or be set on Shore

Sept.r 5th 1775.

read Abraham Vreligh — born in ulster County — lives in Charlotte precinct in Duches County near his father John Vreligh — left home last monday week came down in Dops Sloop as a passengor — he had three firkins of Butter on Board which Adam Bergh sold & received the money & gave to the Examinant — That when they were haild they were nearer to the Transport than the City — That he heard the Berghs say they would go on Board & see the Ship — That when they were haild one of the Dops was at the helme — That he heard Bergh say that they were not afraid & had been threatned by the Country people — That at the chasing of officers the Berghs were there, there was a Dispute between Radley & one of the Berghs — That Bergh said he had not kept out of the way for fear — That the Berghs had pistols with them — That he left the Berghs & Dops there — That Doughty was there — That there were two or three pistols on Board of ~~the~~ Dops Sloop — That the Dops & Berghs are called Tories, & that Doughty was once chosen of the Committee —

That a person who fell over out of a pettiaugor said he had a Letter to a Gentleman on board of one of the Vessells — his name Samuel

he said he owned the ~~and the~~