My Dear Mr. Little -
Well we are adding a few notches to the stick in the line of history.
I would like to write a letter that you could read to your class; but our letters are crowded so I won't be able to.
I suppose you have heard of the song "Oh where do we go from here" that is just it we hit one place then "Back up, our troubles in our old hip bag and smile, smile, smile; for the next place. We leave here in just a week.
They certainly are a fine

class of people here and the boys enjoy helping them out.
The rest of the boys have been lost until about a week ago.
I am the only "Wkt" boy in our segment but Paul Briggs, Dan Lloyd, Claude Masters, Ben Corbid, H. Johnson, M. Kimble are in the others.
By the way we all came to the conclusion that Sherman was right about "grass".
No doubt you have heard about the Liberty Bond. Our segment is ahead of all the other
